

Heidelberg, Germany

DIRECT EXCHANGE

Location

The Heidelberg University of Applied Sciences, founded in 1969, is one of the few private universities in Germany and has a modern campus, where picturesque surroundings, history, and education meet to form one of Germany's most beautiful cities. The region has a very strong economy and is home to a number of research centers and the corporate headquarters

Host University

SRH University Heidelberg

Academic Calendar

Fall: Mid September - December

Spring: Mid January - April

Students cannot depart Germany before their final exams.

Eligibility

GPA: 2.75

Majors: All Business majors

Grade level: Sophomore and above

Application Deadlines

Fall semester: April 1

Spring semester: October 1

Why Heidelberg?

Study business in English at SRH University Heidelberg in Germany! A wide variety of international business course offerings make this an appealing program for business majors and minors. It is an excellent setting in which to learn about German and European culture, and to take some of the many business courses offered in English. Find more information on this website.

Academics

A full semester workload is 30 ECTS credits (typically 15 US credits). Courses in Heidelberg are taught one at a time during month-long modules. This university primarily offers Business courses taught in English, and does not focus on German language.

Costs

- Tuition/fees: Boise State fees *
*non resident tuition will apply if applicable
- WUE/GEM/Treasure eligible: Yes
- Boise State employee dependent fee waiver: Yes
- Application fee: $100
- Study abroad/exchange fee: $400/semester
- Housing: €265- €550/month
- GeoBlue insurance: $13/week
- Airfare: $1,500 (varies)

Academic Calendar

Semester 1 begins in each October and ends in February. Semester 2 begins in February and ends in July.

Instead of teaching in semester-long courses, the university has sequential five-week blocks (with intensive study of just one or two subjects during the five-week period).

Housing

Students either live in a student hall of residence or in private accommodation. International students are responsible for finding their own accommodation, but there are furnished student residence halls located on campus. Students are encouraged to apply early in order to secure a place in one of these halls.

Find more information on housing options here.

How to apply

Apply on our application portal

<https://boisestate-glo.via-trm.com/>

Materials needed to apply

- Application form
- Essay
- Official transcript
- Letter of recommendation

Exchange students are interviewed by the Global Learning team after their application is submitted.

Contact us

Global Learning

Location: SMASH building 2nd floor

Phone: 208.426.2630

Email: studyabroad@boisestate.edu