

Institutional Effectiveness Functional Map

Vision: Institutional Effectiveness advances Boise State University's continuous improvement efforts by answering meaningful questions through data and analyses that inform decisions, stimulate action, and influence positive change.

Mission: The Office of Institutional Effectiveness is a unit within the Division of Academic Affairs. The purpose of Institutional Effectiveness (IE) is to support and advance data-informed decision-making so that Boise State can achieve its goals as a premier student-success driven research university innovating for statewide and global impact.

University Data & External Reporting

Providing "Official Data"

- Federal reporting (IPEDS, NSF-NIH, etc.)
- State Board of Education reporting and data management
- Annual reporting (Common Data Set, U.S. News, etc.)
- National and State initiatives
- Grant proposal support
- Data governance & quality efforts
- Ad hoc requests

Institutional Surveys & Assessment

Gathering Perspectives & Supporting Learning

- Institutional-level surveys and analysis - students, faculty, staff, alumni
- Academic program learning outcomes assessment reporting & support
- Department / program level needs (assessment, accreditation, or program review)
- Survey development, consultation, and support
- Survey coordination

Institutional Analysis & Effectiveness

Informing Continuous Improvement

- Department Analytics Report - college/dept/program metrics
- Budget Model data and metrics
- University KPI reporting, strategic planning, and accreditation data reports
- Scheduled analyses (e.g., Fate/Source, retention/graduation, alumni outcomes)
- Delaware Cost Study
- University peer comparisons and benchmarking
- Institutional studies and ad hoc analyses

Methodologies: coding and data management; data visualizations; external databases; descriptive and multivariate statistics; qualitative and content analyses

Supporting our team through training and development

Improving our office through ongoing planning and evaluation

Contributing to the University and our profession through engagement and service