

2024

ITAC

IDAHO THREAT ASSESSMENT CONFERENCE

May 29-30

CONFERENCE DETAILS

We are back overlooking the Blue Turf this year with an exciting line up of speakers! The 2024 ITAC will include exciting presentations including: FBI BAU highlighting important findings across several post-attack analyses, SA Robyn Powell; Uvalde Mass Shooting, After Action and Lessons Learned, Abbey Abbondandolo; Extreme Overvalued Beliefs, Tahir Roman, MD; Violent Extremists and Radicalizing to Violence and Best Practice to Get People Reporting, FBI Field Intelligence Group, Sarah Carney; A Different Animal: Assessing and Managing Domestic Violence Threat, Lynn Fairweather, MSW; The Relevance of Cognitive, Gender, and Cultural Biases within Threat Assessment Management Processes and Team Dynamics, Kostas A. Katsavdakis, PhD, ABPP. And Much More!

Due to the sensitive nature of the content, this conference is not open to the public nor the media.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Threat assessment/behavioral intervention team members, School Resource Officers, law enforcement, school safety officials, public safety personnel, mental health professionals, event security staff, venue managers, emergency management personnel, risk managers, human resources, legal personnel, school administrators, teachers and professionals interested in learning more about threat assessment.

REGISTER ONLINE

boisestate.edu/publicsafety-security/idaho-threatassessment-conference

ATTEND IN-PERSON OR VIRTUALLY

In Person:

$395 Early Bird (until 3/10/24)

$495 Regular Price (after 3/10/24)

Virtual:

$295 Early Bird (until 3/10/24)

$395 Regular Price (after 3/10/24)

Presented by Boise State University and the Boise Police Department