

Program Agenda

4:00-4:15

Event Begins

- Food and drink are served.
- Music by Greg Martinez.
- Opening remarks and an overview of the Center for Research and Creative Activity by Nancy Glenn.
- Opening remarks by Amanda Ashley.

4:15-4:45

Creative Writing

- Amanda Ashley introduces Clyde Moneyhun.
- Presentation by Clyde Moneyhun
- Q&A

4:45-5:00

Music & Mingle

- Performance by Greg Martinez and Dennis Feeney.

Mingle and grab food and drink during the performance.

5:00-5:45

Panel and Q&A

- Rulon Wood and Kendra Kaiser discuss their collaborations in film and Geosciences.
- Nicole Molumby and student Jacob Scott discuss their work with Kelly Hopping.
- Kate Walker and Rulon Wood discuss their collaboration on the project "Region 10."
- Q&A moderated by Chad Watson.

5:45-6:30

Mix & Mingle

- Last call for drinks, 6:30pm.

6:30-7:00

Final Performance

- "Dennis Feeney & the Legend Trippers" perform music.
- Video by Rulon Wood and student Jada Johnstone.

Special Thanks to:

Amanda Ashley

Director, School of the Arts

Marie-Anne de Graaff

Associate Dean, College of Arts and Sciences

Leslie Durham

Dean, College of Arts and Science

Anna Drennen

CRCA

Dennis Feeney

CRCA, Performer

Nancy Glenn

Vice President of Research and Economic Development

Kelly Hopping

Assistant Professor, Human-Environment Systems

Jada Johnstone

Student

Kendra Kaiser

Research Assistant Professor, Department of Geoscience

Jana LaRosa

CRCA

Greg Martinez

Director, CMEO, Performer

Madison Miller

Student

Nicole Molumby

Professor, Department of Music

Clyde Moneyhun

Professor, Department of Theatre, Film, and Creative Writing

Jacob Scott

Student

Kate Walker

Associate Professor, Interdisciplinary Art

Chad Watson

CRCA

Rulon Wood

Associate Professor, Film and Television Arts

Creative Activity Mixer

Brought to you by the School of the Arts and the Division of Research and Economic Development.